For I know well the plans I have in mind for you, says the Lord, plans for your welfare not your woe! Plans to give you a future full of hope.

Jeremiah 29:11
(New American Bible).

Eileen Giles, Patty Powell and Mary Ehn left for Victoria following the apparition on the 8th August. We flew out at midnight and arrived in Melbourne at 5am on the 9th August, 2006. Kerry Exner and Marjorie Liddy picked us up from the airport and we drove to Nagambie. We arrived in Nagambie at 7am and decided to have breakfast at a quaint tearooms overlooking Lake Nagambie. The day was crisp and clear and we headed down to the church to say our morning prayers and to wait for 9am Mass. The church was a beautiful country church and we sat under the heater!! (Western Australian blood) After church we met up with Gwen Fosdick who has been corresponding with Patty since 2002. What a pleasure to finally put a face to the name. Gwen took us to her home and we rested and had a beautiful home cooked meal. Patty and Gwen went off to meet Rosie, Gwen's daughter and then at 3pm everyone made their way to the home of Eileen McDonald. About 20 people were gathered in Eileen McDonald's lounge and dining area. We prayed the Divine Mercy Chaplet and then Patty first spoke and then Eileen read a message. We had taken two cases of gifts of rosaries, prayer cards, saint's bracelets, message books and bottles of Holy Water with the tears included. We gave everyone a choice of a gift and then joined them for afternoon tea. Country hospitality is the best. It was such a blessing to meet people who we have corresponded with for such a long time. Some people had come down from Shepparton and we met up with the two David's who had come over as pilgrims and stayed at "Bethany" (house next door to the Shrine of the Weeping Madonna.) We left Nagambie at 5pm and headed towards Bendigo. We phoned Noeleen White and Linda, our hostesses in Bendigo when we were on the outskirts and they arranged to meet us and show us our motel. We dropped off the cases and then went to their house for dinner. By this time we were feeling somewhat weary as we had not had very much sleep since leaving Perth. We drove back to the motel and had our night prayers around the bed. Noeleen was another who had corresponded with Patty since 2002.

Eileen saw an image of Our Lady of the Immaculate Conception (also known as Our Lady of Grace). She commented that this trip we were being accompanied by Our Lady of Grace not Our Lady of Lourdes. It was amazing to us because most places we visited had a statue of Our Lady of Grace, the Sacred Heart, the Infant Jesus of Prague, and an icon of Our Lady of Good Counsel and St. Joseph. In preparation for this trip Our Lady had asked us to consecrate ourselves to the Immaculate Conception.

Eileen received the first message of the trip while we prayed our evening prayers. This message follows:-

We headed off early into Melbourne to visit Kathryn O'Connor and some friends at her Travel agency. This was a wonderful few hours of sharing our lives together. We also had time to pray together our midday prayers and then we had to rush home for the last visitors. We quickly had lunch while they watched the DVD and then had some time to share with them. Some of the ladies had also visited Rockingham and it was great to be able to catch up again with them. It was quickly time to say goodbye to all as we needed to do some packing to try and fit all the statues into our luggage. When arriving at the airport the girl who served us was Catholic and we told her about our dilemma with the statues we had bought. She gave us an extra bag and we took them on as hand luggage. While going through the X-ray machine Our Lady Help of Christians broke in 3 places. We were disappointed but since coming home the statue has been repaired. We thank God for the many graces and blessings we were given on our journey and the many wonderful faith filled people he put in our path and we look forward to the next part of our journey which will begin on 17th October to Sydney.

A few stayed on for dinner and then we needed to head off to Our Lady Help of Christians church to pick up the missing computer. God's plans are always perfect. The priest at this church is Father Victor. We had met Father when he was in Western Australia running a retreat in May. We had an opportunity to catch up with him and spent some time with him in prayer. By the time we headed off it was 11pm and we all fell into bed exhausted. Early next morning Eileen got up early for private prayer and Our Lady gave a message.

14th August 2006 (Morning Prayer Melbourne)

Learn the ways of your Lord and God and be lead always in gentleness and compassion. Fear is not from God. Come under the protection of Gabriel and understand more deeply the words – be not afraid, just as I was not afraid when I was told I would be the Mother of God. Pray to understand the ways of God by accepting His gift to you of the Holy Spirit. Ask for the Heavenly help you need when your burdens seem to weigh so heavily on your shoulder. Pray for the gift of wisdom, the gift of fortitude, and the gift of right judgment. These gifts will help you to discern that the ways of God are always steeped in gentleness and peace from which the love of His Son Jesus flows out. Do not carry your cross alone. I ask you this day to unite your cross to my Son Jesus the Christ and accept the help He longs to give you. Accept the graces and gifts of the Holy Spirit which are given freely because of God your loving Father's great love for mankind. Do not continue to struggle on alone in the darkness, but instead come and be bathed in the light of your Lord and Saviour Christ Jesus through the grace of the Holy Spirit. Be reborn again in this Holy Spirit of love not despair and then let this love flow out like an unending river to those God asks you to love. Let His love flow out to many. God's plan is beyond all telling. His love is infinite. Just like He told Abraham that his descendants would be more than all the sands on the sea shore, His love for you is beyond compare. It is everlasting. I ask you to accept this love. Do not reject it because of the deep wounds of rejection you have felt from those who have betrayed you, those who have left you abandoned. Really believe that you are never alone. God your loving Father will never abandon you. Know that He carved you in the palm of His hand. Understand that He knew you before you were born. Really believe that His plan for you is filled with hope not despair. Come to understand more deeply the ways of your Lord and Saviour. He was betrayed, He was abandoned, but He did it for you and for all mankind so you could live your life anew – a life in the Spirit of the love of your Father through Jesus His Son by the graces of this love in the Holy Spirit.

9th August 2006 (Night Prayer – Bendigo)

Be still my child. Spend time tomorrow in stillness and prayer to gain nourishment for the soul and to cleanse your mind of all the distractions which cloud you hearing the words of your Lord and Saviour. Do not be afraid to spend time each day in quietness and prayer. Understand that this is the path your Lord, Jesus the Christ took. Let your Heavenly Father reveal His perfect plan for you from deep within and learn the lessons needed to follow Christ Jesus in your every day life. Do not be prideful and hold arrogance in always having to be in control of every situation. Learn to let go and let God your Father be your guide and shield through His Son Jesus. Study well the disciplines of spiritual life. Become small so that your Eternal Father can use you as an instrument of Christ's peace and love. Do not be anxious and hasty in your decisions regarding the work you do for God. Be always patient and persevering and always cling onto the love and peace of Christ. Satan will try everything He can to distract and deceive you into rushing ahead and doing it your way instead of you patiently waiting on the word of God and letting Him reveal His plan to you. I ask you to be courageous and fearless in this discipleship of God's love. Do not be afraid to step out in faith into the darkness of the night. Christ Jesus will light your way. Give many prayers offered humbly for the intentions of my Consecrated Sons. Do not be critical with the decisions they make but pray instead for the immense burdens they carry. Pray that the Holy Spirit will fill them to overflowing so they too, will trust completely in the Divine Will of the Heavenly Father and will step out in blind faith to shepherd their hurting flock. I ask for your prayer support for this cause. Take up the challenge to be my prayer army and know that your prayers will help to further God's kingdom. Be supportive and loving to my Sons and learn obedience knowing that this will strengthen you to always do God's work humbly for the glory of your Heavenly Father without any selfish personal agendas of wanting it to always be your way. Go now with the peace of Christ within your heart and let it flow out to all.

The next morning Noeleen and Linda came and we followed them to Rochester for St. Philomena's feast day. We arrived at St. Joseph's, Rochester about 10am. What a beautiful country church. Noeleen was playing the organ for the services. Eileen and Patty went to the side altar to pray and Eileen received a message from Jesus. The message is as follows:-

10th August 2006 (St Philomena's prayer day Rochester Jesus in front of tabernacle)

I will send you people. Stay humble and gentle in all you do. True humility comes when you stay background and only come forward when you are called to by the inspiration given to you through the Holy Spirit. It is in your smallness that God's perfect plan will be revealed to you. Do not fear this journey of littleness and understand that through your nothingness God's greatness will be achieved. Spend time with me today and receive the nourishment you need for the rest of your journey. I will strip back the layers of imperfection this day to transfigure you into my perfect likeness. Do not be afraid to change and grow deeper in my love. It is through your pain that you will discover me and my infinite love for you and for all.

Pray through the intercession of my beloved daughter Philomena, patroness of children for the healing of the wounds of rejection for your children this day.

journey. Let Jesus lead you by the hand and guide you in all you do through the graces of the Holy Spirit. Be tolerant of others and give them help by the prayers you offer. Do not judge them and be critical but try and be more understanding. I ask you to take the plank out of your own eye before you take the splinter out of the eye of others. God knows the heart of each one. Follow the way of your Lord and Saviour. Read Scriptures, especially I want you to meditate on the Beatitudes and practice these virtues in your every day lives. Learn patience and do not always want answers to your prayers to happen instantaneously. God your Father hears all prayers offered through me your Mother, through Jesus my Son and through the angels and saints. Your answers will be given to you in God's time and God's timing is perfect and His plan for you will be revealed when the time is right. Slow down and learn the importance of patience and perseverance in your life. Do not give up because you think your Heavenly Father has not heard you. Trust Him and the plan He has for you. This plan is filled with hope not despair. Cling onto this hope. Do not be fearful and filled with despair. Trust and let God's guiding hand show you the way. Jesus His Son is the way, the truth and your light. Let Him light your path. Be filled with His light and show others the way by the Christ-like love you show to all. Do not pick and choose who to love. I ask you to love one another as Jesus loves you.

We had supper and then said goodbye to Chess and then all headed off to bed. Next morning we went to church at St. Agatha's for mass. They had a great Piety Shop and Patty had a field day collecting more Saint statues. She was so excited as they had a statue of Blessed Mary Mac Killop and we had looked for a long time for this statue. We all bought some statues and went back to Kerry's quite happy with our purchases. We had a busy day ahead and we needed to head off fairly quickly to visit some people. Our first visit was Riccardo and his wife Isobel's house. They are part of the Chilean community and many of their friends came to visit. Riccardo had stayed at Bethany earlier in the year as thanksgiving to Our Lady and it was great to catch up again and to meet his family. While staying in West Australia we had taught him how to make Rosary beads and since then he has been making them and been sending them back to us. We spoke to them and someone interpreted into Spanish for those who didn't understand. They had put on a beautiful lunch. We were limited in time and had to head off as there was a group of people waiting at Kerry's house. Some of these people had visited the Holy Family House of Prayer and others were friends and family from the people we visited in Darwin. We watched the DVD and then said our 3pm prayers and had an opportunity to speak to them all.

one. I am with you always on this journey towards your Heavenly Inheritance. Do not be afraid my little one, trust in me and my saving power for you and for all of mankind.

It was time to be on the move again. This time we needed to travel back into the heart of Melbourne for an appointment with Access 31 for Marjorie to tell her story. Mirella Killingsworth was the presenter and David McLaughlan the producer. She had contacted Kerry before we had come to Victoria to ask if we would mind also telling our stories. The programme is a Christian programme called Spirit of Life and runs for a half hour twice a week. We headed off from Geelong and on the way received a phone call from Anita to say we had left our computer behind. We couldn't turn back as our appointment was at midday and we would not have time as we had to negotiate the traffic through the heart of Melbourne. God is good as we definitely had Heavenly help as to the way we needed to go. We arrived a few minutes late but they were still setting up the equipment so we had plenty of time to relax and wait. While we were waiting we started talking to a young guy called David (we seemed to meet up with many David's on this trip) and we told him about the computer in Geelong and he said that his parents were from Geelong and were coming down that day for the football in Geelong. He rang them and we then arranged to meet up with David later to pick it up. God had other plans and we did not end up making that appointment but instead met him at Our Lady Help of Christians church on the Sunday night. The three interviews were recorded and then it was suggested that maybe Mary Ehn (from Darwin) could be interviewed by Mirella about her Missionary work at Port Keats and in New Guinea. All the interviews went well and we finally finished at about 6pm and headed out of the city back to Kerry's house to unpack and to have a rest after a big day. We had to be home by 7pm as a Yugoslav man called Chess was coming by train down to meet us. He had been corresponding with Patty for some time and wanted to catch up. Chess shared a meal with us all and then we said our 8pm prayers. Our Lady gave a locution message during prayer time.

12th August 2006 (Night Prayer)

I am your Queen of Peace. I am Queen of Heaven and Queen of earth. Tonight I come to you as Mother of Peace. My Son Jesus is the Prince of Peace and longs for you to accept His love and peace in your lives and let it flow out to others. I want you to be more accepting of others and realize that the journey they take is not your journey. Do not be always looking at others and the lives they lead but instead concentrate on your own

The programme consisted of the Rosary, Holy Mass followed by a shared lunch and then a talk by Mary Mc Andrew and Father Austin followed by Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and Benediction and the Divine Mercy sung. The Nun's chapel at the back of the church has on a Wednesday and Thursday Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament. It is a beautiful chapel and very peaceful. After the day concluded we all were introduced to the priests and Patty shared that her grandfather was born in Rochester and Fr. Hynes then came with us to show us how to get to the cemetery. Patty and Eileen's grandfather was John Walter. We travelled back to Bendigo in time for dinner at Noleen and Linda's house. They had invited a group of friends over and they watched the DVD Faith's Journey. A small group of us went out to do evening prayers and Our Lady gave Eileen the following message:-

10th August 2006 (Night Prayer)

Be patient and persevering and let me help you to understand the plan God your loving Father has for you. I ask you to cling onto hope with faith in your heart with the knowledge you are loved beyond compare. Learn more fully the way which leads you to life eternal. Learn the way of complete trust in your Heavenly Father through Jesus His Son and be open to receive the many gifts and graces of the Holy Spirit given freely for you and for the salvation of others. I ask at this time that you give me many prayers. Know that your prayers are a powerful weapon against the wiles of satan. Join my army of prayer and together we will crush the head of satan. Come close to me through my Immaculate Conception and let me lead you to the most Sacred Heart of my Son Jesus. I am your Mother of Grace and I want you to confide in me and ask me to fill you with the graces you need. Do not be afraid. Be childlike and trusting and follow a simple life of Christ's love. Let this love fill you to overflowing to enable you to step out in faith and pass this love onto those in need. Do not judge anyone but instead pray for their hearts to be opened to receive the graces needed in their lives. Do not rush on alone but take time in your day for your Lord and God. He is your Prince of Peace. Many search for peace and fulfilment in many different places. They crave for material possessions and still they do not find peace. True peace can only be found when you search the narrow path which leads to my Son Jesus. Come close to Him and ask Him to fill you with His peace and love. Do not fear any trials or suffering but know that they help to purify your heart so you learn to trust in the Divine Will of your Father through Jesus His Son. Receive Jesus often in communion and be united with Him body and soul. Call upon His help often in your day and let Him guide you along the path of righteousness – the path which will lead you to your life eternal. Begin the journey of trust by accepting the love offered to you by me your Mother of Grace, by the Sacred Heart of Jesus the Christ and also accept the love of my beloved husband Joseph and know that we walk this journey of life with you. Pray through the intercession of your Holy Family.

We came inside because the prayers had taken place out the front of their house (see picture of front cover) and gave the message to all present. We talked to the group and gave them a gift to take away with them.

The next morning we talked to a few people gathered at Linda's and Noeleen's home before leaving for Geelong. We also visited the Cathedral on our way out.

We arrived in Geelong late afternoon and there we were greeted by Anetta and Robert Turcinov and their family and friends. Anetta visited in 2005 and then her mother and 6 friends and a Polish priest came to visit in October, 2005. They had all stayed at "Bethany" and it was great to meet up with them all again. We gave a talk and Anetta translated into the Polish language. Anetta has a beautiful prayer room and she introduced us to the lady who has a Post Office/Hardware Shop but also sells statues. The pilgrim statue of Fatima was visiting the Basilica in Geelong on this day so we all set off for the night's events. What a blessing for us that we were able to have Mass and the Rosary at this beautiful Basilica, on this special occasion.

That night Eileen was given a message in Anetta's prayer room. It was as follows:-

11th August 2006 (Night Prayer – Geelong)

I am your Mother of Grace and I come to bring you graces and blessings from above. Do not be afraid to come close to me. I want you to really believe that I am your Heavenly Mother and I love and care about you. Learn my lessons of love by reading and putting into practice the lessons given to you through my messages which your Heavenly Father has allowed me to give you. Accept this advice given to you with a humble heart and know that it is important for you to change and grow each day more into the likeness of my Son Jesus. Spend time with him as often as you can in quietness and prayer. It is essential that you learn how to be still instead of always rushing ahead. There are many distractions which draw you away from your Lord and Saviour. Change the way you lead your lives. Material possessions are not important. Learn the ways of your Lord. Put the love of God first and all these things will be given to you. Stay close to me by the prayers you give me. Your prayers are a powerful weapon. I ask you to give to me many prayers. Let them form a beautiful bouquet of fragrance and flowers offered up humbly for the salvation of souls. Step out in faith and know that your prayers are powerful and do make a difference when offered with true humility of heart. Do not be always be praying for your own personal gain but instead be selfless in your prayers and offer them to help others. Remember to give the praise and thanks to your Father for the many blessings He gives you every day. I want you to be more trusting. Stay peaceful and patient. It is in God your loving Father's time that all will be revealed to you not in your time. Do this missionary work of God's love always where you think more of the welfare of others and reach out with tolerance and patience to many who are put in your path. I remind you once more to strip back any areas of pride and to humble your heart. This journey is not for personal glory but always for the glory of God. Be gentle and little just like a small child trusting completely in your Heavenly family and know that through your smallness all will be revealed to you by your Father through the Son in the graces of the Holy Spirit.

The following morning we went with Anetta to the Adoration Chapel in Geelong. On the way I asked whether we could call into the shop that sold the Statues. As soon as Patty walked in she saw a statue of the Infant Jesus of Prague which she knew that she had to take home. Next to this was a statue of St. Vincent Ferrer. A couple of weeks before Patty left to come to Victoria her plumbing at home had blocked. A plumber was hard to find as the building trade in the West is at a high. She decided to go onto Patron Saints Index and find out who was the patron for plumbers. Low and behold it was St. Vincent Ferrer. She had never heard of him before and here in a matter of weeks was his statue. (No she didn't take him home as he belonged to the owner of the shop!!!). We then set out for the Adoration Chapel. How beautiful is it to spend time with Jesus in Adoration. Eileen received a message from Jesus and it is as follows:-

12th August 2006 (Adoration Chapel – Geelong – Jesus)

I ask you to carry your crosses for me and for the salvation of mankind. Do not be afraid of your cross. Embrace your suffering with a gentle humble heart. You will never be given more than you can handle. Put on your crown of righteousness – put on your crown of suffering. Understand that this crown of thorns will help you to purify your heart so you are steeped in righteousness. I will be with you to guide and help you. Remember you are never alone. Be filled with my peace and joy and let my love flow out to many. Understand that the jewels in your crown are the virtues of the Holy Spirit. Learn how to be tolerant, have endless patience and always persevere no matter how many trials come your way. I will reveal to you God's perfect plan when the time is right. Stay close to my most Sacred Heart and together with my Mother's Immaculate Heart let us be united as
